BUSY APRIL

We have Easter April 1 to 4, we have a Friday fun day in Fremantle on the 8th, we have GNOT heat on Sunday April 11th, we have a red point event on Friday the 16th {no pyjamas}, we have Anzac Day – a normal green point event on the 25th (Anzac Pairs will be held on May 1st), and we have the glorious Autumn skies...Busy Busy Busy !!

But first let's share a few minutes thinking about the wonderful Verona Sleeman.

Our oldest dearest member, Verona Frances Edith Sleeman, who born 20.11.1920 passed away on March 8th 2021. A few members of the Fremantle Bridge Club were fortunate enough to help Verona celebrate her 100th birthday a few months ago – and those who knew a little about her knew her love of sports including Golf and Tennis. Verona was a committed member of the Bridge Club not missing a Melbourne Cup for years.
Farewell Verona

Some of our earlier members may remember ISABELLA GORSKI.
Isabella passed away in February 2021. Vale Isabella.

ANZAC DAY – APRIL 25

When we remember those who fought against tyranny for the safety others; when, in 2020 under the threat of Covid-19 many stood to attention at dawn in their own yards and said a silent thanks; when all generations stand united for a short while;
LEST WE FORGET
